Sonic

THERE IS A GENE CALLED SONIC HEDGEHOG (SHH). ITS IMPORTANT FOR EMBRYONIC DEVELOPMENT.

IT WAS FIRST DISCOVERED IN FRUIT FLIES, WHICH HAS A COMMUNITY KNOWN FOR CREATING FUN GENE AND PROTEIN NAMES.

SIMILAR PROTEINS ALSO HAVE NAMES RELATED TO HEDGEHOGS (INDIAN HEDGEHOG AND DESERT HEDGEHOG). THE PROTEIN THAT INHIBITS SHH IS CALLED ROBOTNIKININ, AFTER SONIC'S ENEMY IN VIDEO GAMES.

BUT SHH IS AWKWARD FOR PHYSICIANS TO SAY, SO THEY CALL IT HOLOPROSENCEPHALY-3 (HPE3).
